

Dear Friends & Clients:

We hope you and your family are staying healthy amidst the coronavirus outbreak. Every day we are facing more extensive changes to our daily lives through school and work closings, travel restrictions, social distancing and quarantines. Hopefully, all of these disruptions will be short-lived.

Please know that during this time, Schwartz & Shaw, P.L.L.C. remains open for business. With the possibility of more changes to come, we wanted to reach out to you in advance to assure you that our attorneys will be here to support and advise you about your legal matters. Fortunately, we have long planned for and invested in Schwartz & Shaw's ability to work remotely on a large scale. Please let us know if there is anything we can do to assist you as you navigate your own challenges. The health and welfare of our employees may cause us to reduce staff within the office to essential personnel only, or move to a full working remotely situation. However, even if the physical office closes we are still working and will be present to provide you legal advice and support. Our secure network allows us to access all of our files and do our work as usual from a remote location if needed, and our online research resources allow us to continue to provide up to the minute legal opinions. Our lawyers and staff will continue to monitor emails, texts and phone calls with your best interests in mind and there should be no disruption in service to you.

Please contact us via email or call us at (919) 821-9011 if you need assistance. Office phone lines will operate as usual. Email addresses and phone numbers for the lawyers and our Law Firm Administrator are set out below:
